WHAT HAPPENED TO THE PLANS TO ENLARGE THE FIRST DISTRICT POLICE STATION? ASKS AND

SW/SE ANC 2-D IS ASKING THE CITY TO EXPLAIN WHY NO ACTION IS BEING TAKEN TO enlarge the 1st District Metropolitan Police station at 415 - 4th St. S.W.

Many months have passed since the station was closed and the 1st District operation and cars moved to the old school building at 5th and M St. S.E., over 16 blocks away - supposedly while the station was being enlarged. A delegation of citizens from the Capitol Park area attended the February ANC meeting bringing a petition signed by 90 residents who fear their safety is threatened by the absence of patrol cars and personnel in the area.

BELOW ARE THE ARTIST'S SKETCH OF THE STATION AFTER IT IS ENLARGED, AND THE CITY'S STATEMENT IN IT'S PY 79 BUDGET ON WHY THE $5,/ MILLION EXPANSION IS NEEDED.

This facility was constructed in 1960 to house a precinct force of less than 200. The present first District has a complement of approximately 500 employees. The addition of approximately 35,000 square feet of floor space will provide adequate working space for the entire staff and will enable the city to receive the maximum benefits to be derived from centralized operations. Productivity and efficiency will increase, and improved police service will be available to the residents of this police district and to the max unusual police district and to the maximum u.S. Government employees and visitors whose activities are concentrated in this area.

IMPROVEMENT ASSOCIATION FORMED IN SOUTHEAST

A NEW ORGANIZATION HAS BEEN FORMED "TO ADDRESS the needs of the near Southeast Community." It is jointly sponsored by Friendship House, the Arthur Capper Residents Council and ANC 2-D single member districts 2D08 and 2D09 (between South Capitol and 11th S.E. from the freeway to the river). It is called CSCIA, the Capitol South Community Improvement Association. Roger France (484-5751) is president; Vivian Williams, vice-president.

Meeting monthly on the Fourth Tuesday at 6:30 pm in the Washington Star building on Virginia Avenue Southeast, it has discussed such question as recreation land, police security, and the care with which Star trucks are driven in the neighborhood. It brought to ANC 2-D a petition signed by several hundred area residents support-ing more recreational space. The school bus parking lot between K, M and Second Streets SE was originally given to the District by the Federal government for recreational purposes, but the District has yet to establish it as a recreational area, the group complained.

CITIZENS EXCHANGE VIEWS WITH POLICE OFFICIALS

SECURITY WAS THE PROGRAM SUBJECT AT THE WELL-attended Southwest Neighborhood Assembly meet-ing at St. Matthew's Lutheran Church on Thurs-day evening, April 24, 1980. Brian Moore, Assembly president, summarized attitudes toward police expressed in the 400 replies to a recent community survey.

Captain Gary L. Abrecht, who is in charge of police services in the SW area, provided information, and led the discussion, assisted by 6 other officers, including Lt. Melvin L. Clark, tactical section commander for Southwest, the officer who walks the beat in 1200 Delaware Ave and an officer from the Community Relations Section for Southwest. The Southwest area is part of Sector 2, 1st District, which extends north to G St and west to 14th St in Northwest Washington. Capt. to 14th St in Northwest Washington. Capt.

Abrecht is in charge of Sector 2. He has about 100 people, on three shifts, under his supervision. Most of them are engaged in street patrol, traffic duties and processing of shoplifting arrests. About 20 officers constitute the tactical force.

Capt. Abrecht furnished the following figures on crime in S.W. - (for the 14,000 people in S.W., they amount to about 1 robbery a day, one burglary a day, and over 2 thefts from autos a day.)

POLICE CONCENTRATE ON BURGLARIES, ROBBERTES The police assume that robberies and burglaries are of most concern to residents, since the first involves either violence or the threat of violence to one's person, and burglaries involve a violation of one's home.

have been involved in surveillance duties on the Capitol Park premises because of recent burglaries there. Entries to homes have been gained by pushing in the doors. Kicking in the door or breaking a window are the usual ways of gaining access to buildings. Residents should be sure that outside doors and their frames are solid and sturdy. They should be sure it is not possible to break a window and then reach through to unlock and open a door. Above all, it is important to keep doors locked, even when one is at home or is leaving the premises for a minute or 2. Leaflets were handed out on protective measures, including free security inspections and operation Identification. Additional information on protective measures may be ob-(continued p. 3 POLICE)

SOUTHWEST HISTORY - FIRST S.W. WASHINGTON FAMILY?

WHAT MIGHT HAVE BEEN SOUTHWEST'S FIRST RESI-dential family was noted in a book of recollec-tions published in 1866, by Mr. Christian Hines, who was born in Georgetown in 1781 and was a lifelong resident of the Nation's Capital. He died

Mr. Hines recalled that around 1800 a family headed by "a Mr. Jacobs, a stone-cutter, lived in a house on the east side of 7th St. between B St. (Independence Ave.) and Maryland Avenue, SW." Hines said the house was "surrounded by a large garden" and the property was known locally as "Spring Garden." Hines adds that near the house were "several large oak trees, on which were suspended two or three swings intended for the amusement of the Jacobs children, Michael, Jasper, and Philip." Hines also rememberd that Jacobs ran a restaurant on the premises.

BIZET, BERNSTEIN OPERAS PLEASE S.W. AUDIENCES

THE TWO HOUR SAMPLING OF MUSICAL DRAWA brought to Southwest Washington as the first offering of "OPERA SOUTHWEST" was greeted by receptive audience each of four nights and raises hopes for additional productions in the

The evening opened with Bizet's one-act Dr. Miracle, a Victorian comedy that would be con-sidered corny today except that the cast played it broadly, almost as a parody of old-fash-ioned comedy. The story line about a young army officer who wears a disguise to be near his loved one without her father suspecting is not at all sophisticated, but provides the excuse for the display of the considerable vocal talents of the four Washington area singers. Bizet did not put a "Toreador song" in this brief opera, but he did put in many delightful duets and quartets.

The strong tenor voice of Paul McIlvaine as Captain Silvio would have no difficulty filling the Kennedy Center Opera House, let alone the Westminster United Presbyterian church, where the concerts were held.

Charles Kopfstein-Penk, the mayor, will be remembered for his comic performance and brillian cadenzas. Ann Barzola sang a wry, witty and attractive Veronica. Margaret Huffstickler in the role of Lauretta, the Mayor's daughter was charming and effervescent and sang the high notes with ease.

TROUBLE IN TAHITI
In only 40 minutes Leonard Bernstein gets across a surprisingly convincing story of a young couple's disappointments with married life in suburbia in his "Opera in seven scenes' Trouble in Tahiti. The casting, direction and production by OPERA, SW made a sensitive and production by OPERA, SW made a sensitive and moving performance of the Bernstein work.

Peggi Goldbergh's portrayal of Dinah was the highlight of the evening. It is rare to find a combination of such pure, rich and beautiful singing together with an honest and wonderfully accurate sense of the role and of Bernstein's intentions and feelings.

Pale Wrinley, who sang the role of Sam

The trio was like a Greek Chorus commenting —with much irony— on the couple's life. When Dinah and Sam are having difficulty starting a "talk about us," the trio croons about "Telling all those little things That are only meant for Sharing, smiling, confiding, loving."

each voice was that of a singer with quality and training.

Director Muriel Von Villas made imaginative use of the stage - creating quite a surprise when the trio appeared for the final scene of Tahiti perched 15 feet above the stage floor.

Music Director Edward Roberts set a good pace in Dr. Miracle and used a small combo to bring sensitive feeling to Trouble in Tahiti.

Southwest looks forward to more productions by Von Villas and Roberts.

THE CAST OF FOUR IN BIZET'S "DR. MIRACLE" SING A COMIC QUARTET ABOUT THE BREAKFAST OMELET. They are, from left, Charles Kopfstein-Penk, baritone, as the Mayor of Padua; Ann Barzola, soprano, as his wife Veronica; Margaret Huffstickler, soprano, as his daughter Lauretta; and Paul McIlvaine, tenor, as Captain Silvio, Lauretta's lover in disguise.

IN "TROUBLE IN TAHITI" A TRIO MAKE? ROSY COMments on life in suburbia by singing a jazz ditty with such words as "Morning sun, kisses the window...of the little white house in Scarsdale." The singers are, from left, David Gilmore, tenor, Ellen Gross, soprano, and Guy Griffa, a Southwest resident, baritone.

Nice People To Do Business With

You probably already know we're the experts in the resale of condominiums, cooperatives and townhomes. And we're at home in Southwest, too. In fact, we have sales people who specialize in Southwest. That's why we've been so successful in the resale of homes at places like Town Square Towers, Carrollsburg, Tiber Island, River Park, Edgewater, Capitol Park, and Harbor Square.

So while spiraling values in Southwest may be news to others, they've been just part of a day's work for us.

ROBERT B. RYAN, GRANVILLE WOODSON TESTIFY ABOUT JETS OVER S.W. AT F.A.A. HEARING

THE HAZARD CREATED BY JET AIRCRAFT taking off from National Airport and making a 90 degree turn over Southwest was explained earlier this year at a hearing sponsored by the Federal Aviation Administration and held at the Marriott-Key Bridge Motel.

Two residents of Harbour Square, Robert B. Ryan, an aviation consultant, and Granville Woodson appeared on behalf the housing cooperative.

Mr. Woodson testified to his own observations from the windows of Harbour Square as jets thundered past Tiber Island or over the roof structures of his residence.

Mr. Ryan pointed out that Harbour Square consists of two high-rises about 135 feet above street level with 800 residents. At the point that a north bound jet lifts off the north runway it is less than 1½ miles from Harbour Square, 3.4 miles from Rosslyn, 4.0 miles from Georgetown, 6.7 miles from Palisades and 10.1

town, 6.7 miles from FAIISQUES miles from Cabin John.
Mr. Ryan said that any pilot who requests permission to make a right hand maneuver toward Southwest is given permission by FAA, and, he said, "... a pimission by FAA, and, he said, "... a plot who requests, is permitted, and exe cutes a steep climbing turn in a loaded airliner over an area of high-rise apartments, is rolling the dice with his aircraft, his passengers, and most certainly those of us who live below..."

EMPHASIS ON PUBLIC HOUSING AND youth unemployment will be given at the next public meeting of the Southwest Neighborhood Assembly at 8 pm Thursday June 26 at St. Matthew's Lutheran Church (3rd and M St. S.W.)

The SWNA will have committees dealing with the long term effort to solve public housing problems and unemployment.

The difficulty of understanding and communications between the people of Southwest of differing income and ethnic backgrounds was discussed at the June 5th meeting of the SWNA Board. Much of the housing east of Delaware Avenue and between $\frac{1}{2}$ St and 2nd St. S.W. is public housing occupied by persons with lower incomes.

At the Board meeting, Board members James Jones of Greenleaf (1200 Delaware Avenue) and LaVerne Acty of the James Creek area (½ St. S.W.) spoke of the alienation felt by lower income people towards the 4th St area and west and north of Waterside Mall. Middle and upper income people fail to understand the plight of their neighbors.

NEW SAFEWAY TO BE 50% LARGER; 84 PARKING SPACES WITH PICKUP AREA IS PLANNED

THE SAFEWAY EXPANSION PLANS WERE THE subject of a well-attended Southwest Neighborhood Assembly meeting on Thursday, May 29 at St. Matthew's Lutheran Church. Public relations section manager for this area's division office of Safeway Stores, Lawrence Johnson provided information and answered questions.

A December completion date for construction and a February 1981 opening of the new store are projected. The new store will be half again as large as the present store, with a total floor area of approximately 31,000 square feet. As suggested at the meeting, there will shortly be a site drawing of the new store inside the present Safeway, according to Johnson in a subsequent telephone conversation.

There will be both hot and cold delicatessen items in the new store. Meat and produce counters and frozen food, flower, automotive, bath and kitchen sections will be enlarged. There will be fresh fish and perhaps an expanded reading section and a greeting card section.

"SAVE OUR MALL" COMMITTEE CONSULTS ATT'Y

AT THE REQUEST OF THE "SAVE OUR MALL" committee, which is a part of the S.W. Neighborhood Assembly, the full assembly meeting of May 29 voted to contract with Frederick Miller, Jr., as legal counsel to work with the Assembly on Waterside Mall issues. Miller is the attorney who represented the Assembly in the BuzZard Point building litigation.

Dick Westbrook, member of the Save Our Mall committee, stated that the committee feels the intent of the S.W. Urban Renewal plan was to have only services of benefit to S.W. residents on the ground floor of Waterside Mall, and that legal help is needed to reverse present practice.

At the S.W. Festival of the Arts, the mall committee sold balloons and T-shirts and distributed flyers listing the history of the mall and problems and asking for community support, both financial and membership.

No bakery is planned, but thought will be given to one as a result of questions asked at the meeting.

PICK UP AREA

There will be a pickup area, with an attendant to load cars and a baskart corral to prevent loss of carts.

About 25 more employees will be hired. Safeway will be glad to consider local residents and encourages the community to screen applicants and make referrals.

screen applicants and make referrals.

The store will have a "good neighbor" bulletin board.

An electronic scanning system will be used for checkout.

Johnson said there will be about 84 parking spaces near the Safevay and around the Metro station. Shopping Center Management, not Safeway, has control of parking. Safeway, according to Johnson, is willing to work with the Assembly in asking for a resolution of parking problems.

Safeway will consider suggestions from the community. Johnson recommended that such matters first be taken up with the management of the local store. Then, if not satisfied, questions can be referred to the Division office, 6000 Columbia Park Road, Landover, Maryland, 20785. Johnson's telephone number there is 341-6807.

AT ITS MAY MEETING, THE SW/SE ANC-2D voiced oppositon to plans for filling in the hole on the N.E. corner of Waterside Mall - which include a blank wall and no shops on the east side facing the library, Town Center East, and Greenleaf annex. The commission went over blueprints with the Mall's architect and will make a special review of the blueprints later.

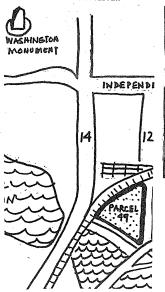

The commission also reviewed a draft "prospectus" for developing a lot between 14th and 12 S.W. below the R.R. tracks by the Bureau of Engraving, called Parcel 49. The 275,650 square foot lot will be sold or leased by RLA. The SW Urban Renewal Plan calls for office space, retail space and hotels or motels. The ANC voted to send a letter recommending emphasis on (1) job training, (2) D.C. residency, and (3) ANC representation in the developer selection and review process.

RIGHT-TURN-ON-RED

In response to DOT plans to relax the prohibition against right-turnon red (RTOR) at many intersections in the SW/SE ANC 2-D area, the commission will send a list of any intersection where the commissioners think change would be harmful.

Chairperson Ethel Williams reported on her work with the hospital association to hold a public hearing on planned cuts in the Medicaid budget. (Subsequently, the city agreed to cancel the cuts, at least for the next few BERTHA OVERBEY IS NEW ANC ADMIN. ASSIST. Bertha Overbey, of Finley House/Riverside, was approved unanimously as the ANC's new Administrative Assistant.

A motion to contribute $25 to a tenant's rally on June 22 in support of rent control was voted down. Cost-conscious commission members decided instead to send a letter of support.

Discussion at the ANC meeting by Douglas Walker on plans to install a new water main down the middle of 4th St. S.E. is covered in a separate story.

The next meeting of the ANC will be at 77 0 St. S.W. on Wed. June 25; July 23rd meeting will be held at 1000 5th St. S.E.

RUGBY PRACTICE AT RANDALL FIELD

WATERMAIN CONSTRUCTION WILL CLOSE 4TH STREET S.E. FOR SEVERAL MONTHS

RESIDENTS ALONG 4TH ST. S.E. from I St. to M St. will be inconvenienced during the coming several months. At the May ANC meeting Douglas Walker of the D.C. Department of Environmental Services described plans to replace the watermain in that street.

Old 6 inch pipes along each side of 4th Street will be replaced with an 8 inch pipe down the center. A trench will be dug one block at a time. When the trench is complete from I to M, DES will go back and hook up the buildings to the new water main, with only an hour of interruption in service to an individual home. Each home will be contacted in advance.

Special arrangements will have to be made to protect plants and bushes in the way of construction. Phone Mr. Walker at 767-7638.

ANC 2D commissioner Dorothy Wolley said that the ANC will try to see that the repaving by the Department of Transportation will proceed quickly so the street can be reopened as soon as possible.

CAN YOU KEEP THE CAT IF THE LAND-LORD ACCEPTS YOUR RENT PAYMENT?

THE D.C. APPEALS COURT ISN'T sure whether Shannon & Luchs has waived their right to enforce the "no live animals or birds" clause in a lease when they knew the tenant had a cat but an agent continued to accept the rent. A lower court said the landlord had permanently waived its right to enforce the clause against the tenant. The appeals court on June 9 sent it back for a new trial and a decision by a jury.

CIVILIAN PAY WILL DROP BACK $1,500 PER YEAR; RETIREES TO LOSE COST OF LIVING

1980 APPEARS TO BE THE YEAR THAT the thousands of federal employees and retirees who live or work in Southwest will see a sharp change for the worse in their pay or benefits.

Although the Bureau of Labor Statistics is likely to announce that comparability under present law calls for at least a 9% increase, and Congress is in the process of mandating an 11.7% increase for military personnel, civilian employees are being held to pay adjustments of half the inflation rate. The President built into his budget for FY 1981 only a 6.2% adjustment and Congress shows no signs of vetoing that by the September 1 deadline.

Union and retiree groups pleading with Congress to keep the twice-ayear COL adjustment for pensions feel lucky that the second one was eliminated for just one year rather than permanently.

Testimony by the American Federation of Government Employees before Congress estimated that the average civilian employee will lose $1,500 a year under the President's 6.2% ceiling. Congress seems concerned about "retaining qualified personnel" in the military service with an 11.7% payraise for them, but finds civilian employees pocket books an easy target.

ANGRY D.C. RESIDENTS PLAN PROTEST FOR JOBS AT "HECHINGER MALL" JULY 16

By Gottlieb Simon

THE D.C. JOBS COALITION HAS ANNOUNced plans for a protest demonstration in front of Hechinger Mall - a $24 million federally assisted shopping center under construction at Benning Road and 15th St. N.W. at 8 am, Wed. J1 16.

A press conference will also be held at the same site at 9:30 am to announce further actions that the group plans as part of its campaign to get more jobs for District residents.

The group is angered by the D.C. government's failure to enforce Federal and District laws that would give D.C. residents first priority for jobs and training on publicly assisted developments. "These developers don't hire D.C. residents and the D.C. government doesn't seem to give a damn," says William Jenkins a community worker with UPO's Neighborhood Development Center #1.

The group considers the Hechinger project symbolic of many redevelopment projects that have been 'sold' throughout the city as sources of local employment.

ONLY A HANDFUL HIRED

"It has produced more rhetoric than jobs," according to Rev. Stanley Barry, Director of the H Street Project Area Committee. His office reports that only a handful of area residents have been hired for the project.

General Contractor for the project is Donohue Construction Co. which has several similar contracts in different areas of the city. Coalition members claim that the company - which has the highest return on stockholder equity (60%) of the top 60 D.C. corporations (Washington Post, April 17, 1980) -- consistently fails to hire significant numbers of D.C. residents

TENANTS OF PUBLIC HOUSING RAISE COM-PLAINTS AT SWNA MEETING

RESIDENTS OF PUBLIC HOUSING UNITS in Southwest had a chance to bring their complaints to a top official of the city housing department at a meeting of the Southwest Neighborhood Assembly. Sidney Glee, acting administrator of the Property Management Administration hear of screens missing for 4 years, and hot water being off for two weeks.

When Glee reported that in the future tenants will be evicted if a member of their family is convicted of criminal activity on public housing premises, the objection was raised from the audience that it is impossible to control the actions of all members of a family at all times.

He described the rehabilitation project being planned at the James Creek project in the First and O St. S.W. area. Management is organizing residents as crews to paint and rehabilitate the housing. Some residents are being sent to investigate tenant self-management as practiced in New Orleans and elsewhere.

No family at James Creek will be displaced if a suitable size unit is available, he said.

Glee cited the problems at the high rise unit at 1200 Delaware as an example of the difficulties of all such high rise buildings and why no more large public housing projects should be built.

S.W. RESIDENTS COMPLAIN ABOUT NOT FINDING JOBS UNDER MAYOR'S PROGRAM

SEVERAL S.W. COMMUNITY RESIDENTS told a representative of Mayor Marion Barry of their failure to find jobs when they applied at both 500 C St. NW and 605 G St NW, the office buildings youth were told to visit.

John M. Anderson, head of the summer jobs program, described his efforts to match young people with summer jobs, and answered questions at a meeting of the SWNA.

In a period when adults are being laid off, it has been difficult to find jobs paying $3.10, the minimum wage, for inexperienced youth between 14 and 21 years of age. About 10,000 CETA jobs financed by the federal government and over 8,000 jobs sought by the Board of Trade are included in the program.

Two hundred and four college students were hired a month in advance and trained to make the program effective. Orientation and counselling is provided. A new payroll system separate from the city payroll system was developed to avoid difficulties which arose last summer, when paychecks were late.

Anderson felt that when 35% of the applicants failed to return for job assignment, it was partly due to youth finding employment on their own, and partly the lack of a work ethic among the young and untrained. Youth need education and training in the world of work in order to get and hold jobs, he said.

JOHN M. ANDERSON, DIRECTOR OF THE Mayor's summer youth program spoke at the June 26 meeting of the Southwest Neighborhood Assembly. About 50 residents attended the meeting.

ADDITION TO MALL TO HAVE THREE FLOORS OF OFFICES, ONE LEVEL OF SHOPS

ARCHITECTS PLANS FOR FILLING IN THE hole at the Northeast corner of Waterside Mall call for three floors of offices and a bottom floor of shops, residents were told at the recent SWNAssembly meeting. Dick Westbrook, vice-president of the assembly and a member of the Save Our Mall Committee, reported that much of the present parking lot at that corner of the Mall will be taken for the new construction. A pass-through will be left along the north side of the Mall with two lanes of parking behind Christ Methodist Church.

Of the 50 attending the meeting 27 returned questionnaires. The largest number, 16 voted for prohibiting the 3 new floors of offices from being leased until the retail shops were all leased. Six voted for the developers plan as proposed. Three would complete the present partly completed structure, without the proposed extension.

WATERSIDE MALL IMPROVEMENTS REPORTED

- E. VERONICA PACE, STAFF ASSISTANT TO City Administrator Elijah Rogers, reported to the Save Our Mall Committee that Waterside Mall developers Bresler and Reiner, Inc., have completed several minor improvments requested by the Committee, including:
- Additional lightbulbs in the corridors
- Trash receptacles steam cleaned and repainted.
- Draperies in the windows of the long-vacant gourmet shop and removal of fixtures and debris left behind by the tenant.
- A secure wooden barrier over the entrance to the vacant underground "Place Where Louie Dwells."
- A uniformly colored, secure fence around the I Street excavation
 - Repainted walls.

Along the waterfront are the famou are schools, churches, housing stretching from 700~7th St. on the West to 12~center can be seen the low roof of the Waterside Mall flanked by the two off Pace also reported at the June 10 meeting that the developers have agreed to paint directional signals on the M Street parking lot surface. She is negotiating with Bresler and Reiner on providing lighting in the I Street parking lot and making the Mall more accessible to the handicapped.

Thanking Pace for her effective intervention, SOMC Chairperson Carol A. Cowgill said, "I hope City Hall's success with these small problems is repeated when it comes to the larger problem of filling the Mall with the stores and services Southwest residents were promised in the urban renewal plan."

13 YOUTHS HAVE THEIR POEMS AND SHORT STORIES PUBLISHED AFTER WORKSHOP

THE 7TH SESSION OF THE CREATIVE writing workshops at the S.W. Branch Library was held June 9 to complete the series. Thirteen participants will have their works reproduced and bound in small quantity and deposited at the library.

Gladys Lee of the Institute for the Preservation and Study of African-American Writing conducted the sessions.

Jonetta Barris, Washington area poet, read some of her poetry at the final session, which was a reception hosted by S W Librarian Lessie Owen. Students from the workshop held readings of their works, as well.

The series was financed by a $480 grant from the D.C. Commission on the Arts and Humanities and a grant from the S.W. Festival of the Arts.

Eight sixth graders from Amidon Elementary School took part along with older students.

Among guests at the final reception were Southwest residents Barbara Brannan, a member of the D.C. Commission on the Arts and Humanities and Laura Griffin, chairperson of the Southwest Festival of the Arts. Mrs. Griffin addressed the students and guests.

APPRENTICSHIP MESS (cont'd from p 1) The group is also very unhappy about what they call the "apprenticeship mess." Despite recent legislative reforms, Coalition members say that the D.C. Apprenticeship Council is not doing its job. For example, out of 1,921 apprentices registered with the D.C. government, only 381, or 20% are D.C. residents. (39% are minorities and 4.5% are women).

Coalition members indicate that the District is losing hundreds of thousands of dollars in much needed income taxes because it is not enforcing laws for local employment. "Employed people pay taxes; unemployed people consume taxes" they point out in referring to the District's severebudgetary problems.

The Coalition was formed in January to press for the enforcement of employment laws designed to benefit D.C. residents. SW/SE members of the organization include ANC 2D, Capitol East Coalition, Friendship House and Southwest Community House.

M. CARL HOLMAN, PRESIDENT OF NAT URBAN COALITION, TESTIFIES

SOUTHWEST RESIDENT M. CARL Holman, President of the National Urban Coalition, appeared before the House District Committee in June at hearings on urban America. One matter he discussed was small business in neighborhoods.

"Each year a large proportion of the new private sector jobs are created by small businesses," said Holman. "Yet in city after city, one of the surest signs of the imminent collapse of neighborhoods is the disappearance of the smaller food and clothing stores, the pharmacies, the repair and appliance shops, the restaurants and other modest but vital commercial and professional enterprises which provide jobs and hold neighborhoods together."

"The eight-hour-a-day downtown office-building employees alone cannot ensure the vitality of cities and the metropolitan areas of which they are a vital part."

The patrons were delighted, the restaurants were happy, and the American Cancer Society was pleased with the proceeds.

CITY COUNCIL MEMBERS FACE-TO-FACE WITH CHALLENGERS IN S.W. AUG. 28

THE CANDIDATES' FORUM THURSDAY,

August 28 at 8 pm at St. Matthews Church, 222 M St. S.W., will give three city council members who are up for election this fall a chance to defend themselves against their challengers and to answer questions from citizens of the SW/SE area.

In the political party primary elections at the regular city polling places Tuesday, September 9, voters who are registered as Republicans will decide whether Joe Grano, who lives by Dupont Circle, or Clinton Brown who lives in Chevy Chase, D.C., will replace Jerry A. Moore, the incumbent, as the GOP candidate for at-large member of the Council. The three will face one another at the August 28 meeting in S.W. In the presidential primary election last Spring, 151 Republicans voted in the four precincts of SW/SE Washington, D.C. The D.C. Charter prohibits any party from having more than two of the 4 at large council seats, so the Republican Party, Statehood Party and Independents vie for the other two in Democratic D.C. DEMOCRATIC CONTEST TOO

At the September 9 primary election voters registered as Democrats will choose between Raymond W. Powell, a Southeast resident, and incumbent councilmember John Ray to be the Democratic candidate for at-large member of the Council. Both men will be at the forum.

Ward 2 Council Member John A. Wilson will also attend, although he has no opposition in the Democratic primary. In the general election in November he will face Southwest resident Ann Kelsey Marshall, who has no opposition in the Republican party primary and will be at the Aug. 28 forum.

RESIDENTS OF TOWN CENTER PLAZA WEST PREPARE TO BUY THEIR TWO BUILDINGS FOR UP TO $8.5M

IT STARTED WHEN THE LANDLORD SENT OUT notices to vacate their apartments to the residents of 1001 and 1100 6th St. S.W. He was converting the buildings to co-ops.

That turned out to be illegal, and was stopped by the D.C. government. But in June the landlord did send out a legal notice that he was selling the buildings.

The tenants have organized the Town Center West Residents Association, Inc., hired attorney Ann Garfinkle and Peter Behringer, a, professional counselor in development and management.

A feasability study has already been completed and initial findings are that the buildings and surrounding grounds, which include a swimming pool, are sound and lack any areas needing vital repair.

The price for the two buildings with 256 units has been set at $8.5 million. and negotiations have just started between the residents and the owners.

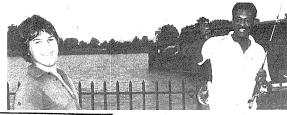

Bob Ferrill, chairperson of the Town Center West Residents Association, Inc., which has a 17 member board of directors, says, "We are very optimistic as we enter into negotiations with the owners. So far, everything is proceeding well."

Ferrill says the Board is willing to accept any assistance that anyone is willing to provide in order to help the residents attain the property and maximize the retention rate. The residents have until October 1, 1980, to reach an agreement with the owners, and to February 1 of next year to work out financing.

"U" TURNS PERMITTED AT 4TH & M SW; CROSSWALK ON WEST SIDE IS DENIED

"U" TURNS WILL NOW BE LEGAL FOR both the east bound and westbound traffic on M St. at 4th St. S.W. New regulations of the city require the turns to be made only when the left turn signal is on.

At 6th and M St. S.W. "U" turns will be permitted westbound during off peak hours on a trial basis.

A cross walk on the west side of 4th and M St. S.W. has been denied by the city. DOT Director Douglas N. Schneider, Jr., questions the safety of the maneuver at that intersection.

Requests for these changes in traffic flow have gone to the city from the Southwest Neighborhood Assembly, the Save-Our-Mall committee, and ANC 2-D. Councilmember Jerry A. Moore, Jr., chairman of the Committee on Transportation and Environmental Affairs, and 2nd Ward Councilmember John A. Wilson both replied to the S.W. representatives.

COMMUNITY LEADERS LISTENing to a briefing on closing the Metro-bus garage at M and Half St. S.E. and building a larger one on the north side of "I" St. at New Jersey Ave S.E.

SWNA, ANC REPRESENTATIVES RAISE DOUBTS ABOUT METRO'S PLANS TO BUILD A NEW GARAGE FOR 250 METRO-BUSES AT NEW JERSEY AND "I" S.E.; FEAR IMPACT ON AREA

AT A PUBLIC MEETING AT ST. VINCENT DE PAUL CHURCH IN JULY QUESTIONS, concerns and some doubts were raised by the ANC and SWNA officers present as to the so called "limited environmental impact" of a new and larger Metro-bus repair garage planned for New Jersey and "I" S.E. to replace a smaller garage at M St. and Half St. S.E.

According to SWNA President Brian Moore, "Some of the local representatives were not convinced of the viability of the WMATA new proposed location. Other sites, in industrial or park areas seemed more appropriate."

A double deck garage holding 250 buses would be built on the north side of "I" St. S.E. and an employee parking lot for 150 cars would be located on the south side. More than a hundred other employee cars would be expected to be parked on the streets in the area as they are now at the smaller garage at M and Half St. S.E.

No explanation was given for increasing the size of the garage and hence increasing the traffic congestion at intersections, the noise and exhaust fumes, except that in 1974 a "technical study" prepared for the Washington Metropolitan Area Transit Authority, operators of Metro-bus and Metro-rail, "indicated that the optimal facility size should accommodate 250 buses."

The obvious increase in noise and pollution and traffic congestion from routing the buses down 1st St. S.E. from "I" to "M" at the start of rush hours and returning, was brushed off because "national standards for measuring this type of project" show the effect would be negligible.

The firms paid by Metro to justify the project and explain it to the public are Skidmore, Owings & Merrill and Barton-Aschman Associates.

PROTESTERS AT HECHINGER MALL IN NE Washington questioned the city government's enforcement of affirmative action plans for apprentices and construction workers at the project, which is receiving a $3.5 million federal loan. SW/SE groups joined in the protest, because of similar failures in new construction along C St. S.W.

RECREATION USE URGED FOR SCHOOL BUS PARKING LOT ON M ST. S.E.

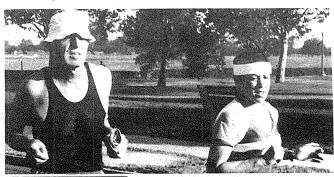

CAPITOL SOUTH RESIDENTS AND ANC 2D received encouraging responses from several Council members to the request to convert the parking lot at M and 2nd St. S.E. to recreational purposes, as originally intended when the federal government turned the lot over to the city in 1975.

Councilmember Nadine Winter said the request was feasible and welldocumented. Councilmember Dave Clarke expressed full support of the residents request. Council members John Wilson and Charlene Jarvis phoned ANC 2-D for additional information, indicating their interest.

Not as encouraging were replies from Councilmember John Ray who said the schools buses had to be parked somewhere and cited "the current financial status of the city." Councilmember Betty Ann Kane referred the matter to the school board, saying the city council had no role in the assignment of the land.

Roger France, president of Capitol South Community Improvment Association, which originated the complaint, says the land could be relandscaped using federal grant funds if the Recreation Department submits a grant proposal.

Mayor Marion Barry reported that he has referred the matter to Carrol Harvey, Director of the Dept. of General Services, which had assigned the lots to the schools in the first place.

PURSE SNATCHING AT ONE-A-WEEK; PARK POLICE ADVISE CAUTION

DETECTIVE KEN BONE OF THE National Park Police addressed a group of 40 Southwest residents in the Waterside Towers recently on precautions for avoiding street crimes such as purse-snatching and muggings. The Park Police are responsible for the waterfront parkland from the Washington Boat Line to the Titanic Memorial and the park north of Waterside Mall.

About one offense a week is reported to the police from those areas, usually at lunch time or when people are preoccupied about going home from work.

The detective suggested a person should stay in lighted areas, use wheeled carts rather than carrying shopping bags, walk with someone rather than alone. Eye-to-eye contact can intimidate a youngster trying to get the courage to snatch a purse. A purse should be held firmly in the hand, not hung loosely on the shoulder.

"ON AGAIN, OFF AGAIN" HOT WATER AND AIRCONDITIONING PLAQUE CITY HOUSING

SW/SE ANC 2-D HAS BEEN WORKING ON complaints from residents of Greenleaf housing who have been without hot water unexpectedly and for long periods.

Patricia Willis, manager of the city's Property Management Administration (or PMA), explained to ANC 2-D that contractors have made mistakes and disputed who was responsible. One contractor, ACMAT, lost its contract with PMA because of unsatisfactory performance with air-conditioning in PMA's senior citizen buildings. ACMAT has another contract for service and maintenance of the heating boilers for Greenleaf. A different contractor is responsible for renovating the boiler system. This required turning off the hot water for three weeks at the beginning of the summer.

Ms. Willis has told ANC 2-D she hopes there will be no more interruptions of service, now that most of the work is complete.

JEFFERSON JR. HIGH IN SOUTHWEST EXCEEDS NATIONAL NORMS IN READING AND MATH

SHOWING THE GREATEST IMPROVEMENT OF any Junior High in Washington D.C., Jefferson Jr. High, 7th and "I" St. S.W., scored above national norms in reading and math tests given last Spring.

Ninth graders at Jefferson scored 10.4 in reading and 10.2 in math, compared to national norms of 9.8 for each subject. A year earlier Jefferson 9th graders scored 8.2 in reading and 9.1 in math.

Of the 39 junior highs in Washington D.C., Jefferson now ranks 3rd, close behind Ballou and Deal Jr. Highs. SOUTHWEST ELEMENTARY SCHOOLS IMPROVE

While the citywide averages for 3rd and 6th graders remained stationary, Southwest elementary schools Amidon, Bowen, and Syphax showed improvement over 1979. Amidon improved in all four categories - reading and math for 3rd and for 6th graders and is well ahead of city averages. Bowen, which is ahead of city averages in 6th grade math, improved in all categories except 6th grade reading which showed no change over 1979. Syphax improved in 3rd grade reading and math, was stationary in 6th grade reading, and slipped in 6th grade math.

In Near S.E. Giddings 6th Grade math scores jumped from 5.2 in 1979 to 6.1 in 1980. Van Ness had 3.4 in 3rd grade math, up from 2.9 in 1979.

TICKETS GO ON SALE FOR MENOTTI'S THE MEDIUM AND OLD MAN AND THE THIEF BY OPERA, SW, NOV 13-16

TICKETS ARE NOW ON SALE FOR the fall season of Southwest's new chamber opera company, OPERA. SW, which will be performing a double bill of one act operas in English Thursday through Sunday November 13, 14, 15 and 16 at 8:30 pm at Westminster United Presbyterian Church, 400 "I"(Eye) St. S.W., Washington, D.C. 20024. Checks made out to OPERA, SW, for $4.50 a ticket, should be sent to Opera, SW at the church address above. Enclose a self-addressed stamped envelope. All seats are general admission.

Edward Roberts, who will conduct both operas, considers Gian Carlo Menotti America's best known living opera composer.

The Old Maid and the Thief, to be staged by Beau Stark, is a "delightful and witty opera with the moral that a virtuous woman can make a thief of even an honest man.' The Medium will be staged by Muriel Von Villas and is "an intense and chilling occult drama with a seance that ends with a shock."

John Willey has been appointed general manager to coordinate the fund raising and business ends of OperaSW. Volunteers to help with any aspect of musical and theatrical production from fund raising and ticket selling to typing and stagecraft are urged to phone artistic director Edward Roberts at 527-0633 or 334-7604.

IMPROVEMENT IN THE D.C. SCHOOL system was described by Superintendent of Schools Vincent Reed at the September meeting of the S.W. Neighborhood Assembly. Progress includes:

- Teacher evaluation twice a year, and continued education required of teachers each five years.
- 2) The end of "social promotion", the automatic advancement in grade for students regardless of accomplishment. The competency based curriculum and reading and math labs in high schools will help.
- 3) Preparing students to take standardized achievement tests, by which they will be judged outside of school anyway.
- 4) Collecting from parents for lost and damaged books, with the money going into a book fund. TEN DAY FURLOUGH NEXT SPRING
- To live within the $39 million smaller budget allowed by the Mayor compared to what the school system requested, Dr. Reed said that he has eliminated 700 positions (mostly teachers) and will have to let 450 go next spring or put all teachers on a 10 day furlough without pay. if his budget is not increased.

When reductions in force are made, he said, the criteria are: seniority, veteran's preference required by law, and outstanding performance, which adds 4 years to a person's service credit.

SCHOOL BOARD MEMBER RIEFFEL SPOKE

Also speaking at the Assembly meeting was school board member for the Second Ward Alaire Rieffel. She feels that the schools are off to a good start in spite of the reduction in force. The superintendent can now move principals, and has done so. The number of regional offices has been reduced from six to four. Ward 2 is now with Ward 8 in Region A.

Assistant Superintendent for Region A. Dr. Reuben Pierce, told of several plans for Southwest schools in the discussion stage These include combining the Ballou High School's Math-Science program with the Randall Aerospace and Marine Science (RAMS) program in a new high school in the Jefferson Jr. High building. Bowen Elementary might then be remodelled into a junior high school and Syphax Elementary be up-graded as an elementary school instead of being closed, Randall school building would be closed.

Audrey Austin, a special education teacher at Bowen, stated that very few children are identified as having learning problems. Tests are given, but no results are received. EDWARD C, SYLVESTER, JR., LEFT, visits with President of the University of the District of Columbia Dr. Lyle Carter, at the Congressional reception sponsored by Mayor Marion Barry recently. on the District of Columbia of the

THE D.C. BOARD OF EDUCATION made its annual visit to Ward 2 to hear the views of the community Wednesday, October 1.

To the suggestion that a model academic high school be set up, board member Barbara Letts Simmons responded that with the Mayor reducing the city's budget request for Fiscal Year 1981, $39 million below the request of $279 million, the school system could not afford it. There are now 16 separate specialties in high schools, each starved for staff, facilitiies, and supplies. It would be dishonest to label a high school "academic" when it has no laboratories.

Granville Woodson, Southwest resident and former Assistant Superintendent of Schools for Buildings and Grounds, questioned whether the proposal to close one of the three elementary schools in Southwest is wise, when new families are likely to arrive when Buzzard's Point is developed. The proposal to convert an elementary school to a junior high and to convert a junior high to a high school would be costly, he said. A new building with a community recreational center might be cheaper.

Paul Humphrey, an employee at Jefferson, who has worked at several schools, commented that administration at Jefferson Jr. is excellent and needs to be recognized. An active incentive awards program is needed, he said.

Meals for Pre-Schoolers

SW/SE ANC CHAIRPERSON ETHEL JAMES Williams visited Peking, Shanghai and Canton in the People's Republic of China, recently, after attending a meeting in Hong Kong of the International Council of Social Work.

of Social Work.

"I was impressed with the great emphasis on child care," said Ms. Williams, "and the Chinese government's role in assuring resources to meet the needs of the child's growth and development." She visited an elementary school, a Middle School, The Children's Palace, a People's Commune and a psychiatric hospital.

"There are over a million paramedics, which are called 'barefoot doctors' in China," she said. "Adequate housing is critical. The present housing is called "Estates", similar to what we call "projects"

"Emphasis is placed on neighborhood support. The family, the extended family are important. Older members of the family are revered and are provided for in the family unit.

"The Imperial Palace, the Forbidden
City and the myriad temples and art and craft centers reflect the thousands of years of expression of the human spirit in delicate handiwork, sculpture and philosophic writings.

"China's thrust into the modern world since its revolution, attests to the determination of a people to shed their bitter past," Ms. Williams said.

Congress Warns Banks on Harm in Some Condos

THE U.S. HOUSE AND SENATE HAVE approved a housing bill with new language that helps tenants threatened by conversion to condominium or cooperative. The language was made part of the law at the suggestion of Southwest resident Congressman Henry Reuss, chairman of the House Committee on Banking, Finance and Urban Affairs , below.

The exact language is Section 603 of the law, which says:

"It is the sense of the Congress that lending by federally insured lending institutions for the conversion of rental housing to condominiums and cooperative housing should be discouraged where there are adverse impacts on housing opportunities of the low- and moderate-income and elderly and handicapped tenants involved."

Congressman Reuss explained on the floor of the House on September 30:

"But where the conversion is one which would simply result in the eviction of low and moderate income, elderly, and handicapped tenants, the conference report properly discourages the use of credit for such arrangements. The nation's scarce pool of credit for new capital investments, small business, farmers, and particularly new housing, is sufficiently strained so that it makes no sense to encourage its use for the purpose of evicting unwilling tenants, further lowering the Nation's short supply of rental housing, and raising housing costs in the building involved and throughout the area.

"Properly applied by the private and public sector, the sense of Congress condo resolution can help stem the tide of socially undesirable conversions.
